Ashley Hall 美國女子學院 Ashley Hall

Virtual Lincoln American Education Fair in Taiwan

School Introduction :

Founded in 1909, Ashley Hall is a PreK-12 all girls school in Charleston, South Carolina. As the only all-girls private school in South Carolina, Ashley Hall is uniquely situated to address the specific needs of young women. Its mission to produce “an educated woman who is independent, ethically responsible, and prepared to meet the challenges of society with confidence” is realized by means of a rigorous college preparatory program that increasingly encourages experiential learning opportunities and individual student initiatives.

School Information :

Ashley Hall is located on six acres in the beautiful historic district of Charleston, South Carolina, with athletic fields a 10-minute drive from campus. Students reside in Charleston’s tri-county area and represent a broad range of socio-economic, religious, and ethnic backgrounds. International boarding students reside in the Elizabeth Rivers Lewine ‘54 House for Global Studies, a renovated historic mansion complete with a pool and large porches just across the street from the main campus. The downtown location is close to cultural and historical sites, shopping, and restaurants that provide a variety of weekend activities. The boarding program combines the comfort of living in a home environment with the added dimension of intercultural interactions and dialogs with fellow international students.

Introduction of Winter/Summer Camp

Summer English Language Institute (SELI) is a 2-week summer experience with the program theme of “Careers of Women” for international and local females between the ages of 13 and 18. In addition to daily ESL classes taught by veteran Ashley Hall faculty, students meet successful women working in different industries, visit various local businesses including Boeing and Volvo, as well as enjoy many fun outings in the local community. A maximum of 20 international students and 8 local American students live together in the Elizabeth House for Global Studies, a historic Charleston mansion which serves as a boarding residence and classroom space during the academic year and is located on the Ashley Hall campus in beautiful downtown Charleston, South Carolina.

Introduction of special shorter program

Ashley Hall has a European campus in Spoleto, Italy, which provides Ashley Hall students, teachers, and alumnae with experiences that connect languages, the arts, and sciences against the backdrop of a historic center of creativity. A restored 16th century property, the Palazzo Leti features study spaces, dorm rooms, and shared community areas, including a Renaissance garden overlooking the Spoleto valley. Spoleto Study Abroad (<https://spoletostudyabroad.org/>), affiliated with Ashley Hall, offers summer and Thanksgiving break programs featuring hands-on immersion allowing students to study an artistic discipline of their choice. Students live like local Spoletini during their time abroad and explore the surrounding towns on weekly day trips throughout the Umbria region. Students in the Summer Program can choose from the full 25-day program or a 2-week option.
