Introduction of the school

The University of the Incarnate Word (UIW) in San Antonio, Texas creates enlightened citizens within a global community. UIW is nationally ranked on U.S. News and World Report. Small class sizes and a student-teacher ratio of 11:1 ensure that students gain hands-on experience in their field. 90 academic programs are available. A focus on career and professional development helps students build their future through internship opportunities, workshops, networking events, and job fairs. UIW's diverse community represents 80 countries. The university hosts 150 multicultural events every year. San Antonio, Texas is the 7th largest city in the United States. It has been rated one of the best places to travel in the world by National Geographic. UIW students benefit from all of the resources of a major U.S. city while having access to a strong community of peers and world class faculty on campus.
